Misuse of the Ethiopian Tafari Legacy in Barbados

Since my last publication of Kush Quarterly's April to July 2025 issue, some events from the 1970s – 2008 again reared their heads and were brought to my attention. Anyone who has done research on the numerous chapters and multiple millennia old Solomonic Dynasty in Ethiopia knows how the name "Tafari" was acquired and handed down to the King of Kings. They must then concede these terms are tied directly to very ancient lineage that can only be accessed by those who are bloodline related to the continent. So, there was no mystery involved to parliament refuses to introduce the information in the classrooms, although they have had a complete route to Afrika for over two decades, and have done absolutely nothing but talk takataka. The only details available to us were the lies told in school by teachers paid to do so, a jailhouse of the mind for Black children from primary school and upward, a false history and mis-education, mis-directing us into a more perplexing state, which led us to nowhere. So there was no reason to question the fraudulent narratives and actor portrayals of the 1980s set up by each government, and would have made no learn that the person who assumed the name "Ikael Tafari," way outside of his primary "Bajan European white" ancestry, like it was some new fad, was allegedly "paid to do so" by the black parliament. I personally never pay close attention to who used Afrikan names, since we did not know any of it applied to us, I had my opinions, but again, we had none of our real Afrikan story to work with then because it was banned and still is, since the uncaring difference whatsoever. Even if we had known anything about ourselves and reacted, this would have evoked a deadly violent response from the colonial Judases under Barrow's Public Order Act 1970, not only to us but to every oblivious incoming generation of our families. "Tafari" was not the only minority who showed up as some conscious "white" or other vocal one-man circus pretending Afrikanness in all its ugliness. While allegedly helpfully draining the treasury happily by usurping our Afrikan names, in copycat style, helped by politicians. Apparently in another fly-by-night episode of scheming and plotting against the original ascendants of the earliest extraction. Whom the political lineup, with no contrition, also begs for votes to retain their suffocating stranglehold on the parliament. The paid public servants even took it one step further to allegedly brazenly finance "Tafari's" attendance in offshore Pan Afrikan conferences. With Afrikans from the continent in attendance, and the bajan side somehow thoroughly convinced themselves that real Afrikans will never notice the a paid "Tafari" impersonator(s) got away because we did not know who we were, most Black Afrikans on the island still have no knowledge of such things. We did not know exactly what the government was doing or why. The people were culturized to wrongly believe that whatever happened in the parliament is none of their business, and belonged solely to unprincipled politicians and unauthorized minorities. We were never told our lives were in extreme jeopardy and still is once they all continue to actively exist. Therefore, we innocently and easily became unsuspecting targeted prey, we had no protection. But politicians and their oddity of this whitish dude who bares absolutely no resemblance to any of the lineage he named himself after, could not present genetic proof, and if asked, could not describe the distinctiveness that an indigenous bloodline would definitely know by pure instinct. This was indeed a true symbol of unwavering contempt for all Black Afrikan people and our continent in Barbados' most hateful form of silent overkill. The Afrikan Union should take note, they are also perceived in the same light by the Black Skin, White Mask (Minds) of Barbados - Franz Fanon. As I was in and out of the island trying to save my own life and unaware of all the terrible things that happened to our people in entirety when I departed intermittently, vicious partners knew exactly what they were doing for sure and made the most of our lack of knowledge to benefit no one else but them, and colluders. These envied titles are all Black Afrikan in antecedents, as the dominant host, and once mirroring mine, only accessible through coded features. This and more is unknown to the island management and other perpetrators, who wasted whatever time they had left on a deleterious fantasy. While not having any real facts, because thieves never check for details. Surprise!!!. Another clear case of identity theft to sideline the Afrikan melanated, since the truth about what the "Tafari" being actually implicated himself in, previously unknown to the Black majority, finally came to the fore in a scandalous reveal. Hence the public humiliation felt by those who tried the repulsiveess to pilfer my brand, both the long-term grudgeful, strife-making official types from the parliament who overreached for decades. And also the most recent assailants who were not so long ago brutally exposed for their disrespectful audacity in thinking they can just make up a title and a non-existent country. Then pronounce themselves as royalty or lure others, who know nothing, to do so without consequences. The parliament went to the extreme, did not even use a Black person who would stand a better chance as a carrier of the lineage, once tested, than some bajan caricature of whiteness clowning around.

The political serpents, and their sidekick crawlers wanted everything of ours whitened, without our consent or any notice, because they want it all for themselves, so this is where they have finally landed. After the mistaken belief they have some entitlement to deny us our heritage. But since they overstepped all boundaries, cannot enter any of our worlds, and neither can any other manacial bajan whitish or black sellout scoundrels with the same propensity. A date with fate for small island impostors who thought they could jump in front of our Black Afrikan Gods' ANOINTED. The blowback sees them riding an ancient curse. Have I not told them for at least 10 years, they are cursed and blighted, nothing they touch works, no matter how basic. Now we know why. The alleged attempted theft of the Tafari Ethiopian legacy became their Waterloo.

While carrying a diseased mindset riddled with racism against Blackness, and are quite adept at presenting false documentation of birth and death certificates, probate documents, fake wills, with willing fraudsters attached, and everything needed for wholesale pillage; including but not limited to the alleged massive thefts and untraceable disappearance of large bank accounts. After practicing on the population throughout numerous lifetimes, the crater of vipers ended up with a terrifying specialty. Our Prisoners of War (POWs) designation as the longest kidnapped from the Afrikan continent and still in captivity (530 years later), which we knew nothing about before, no one told us anything. We were eventually forced to do our own in-depth inquiry into our story just to stay alive. None of which gives the local political dregs of the earth, or any of their vampiric "white shadow" mini-me minorities permission or authority to steal sacred ancestral birthrights from Afrika or anywhere across our earth or mismanage our lives to perpetrate and orchestrate the pillaging of Afrikan resources. The unsettling fixation to pull off a theft of classical Afrikan honors will certainly be the death of all the culprits who giddily and greedily buried our Afrikan story, in this drawn out cavalcade.

Misuse of the Ethiopian Tafari Legacy in Barbados

They were warned to stop getting in the way of the Black people who have rightful ownership and may not know yet. If the frantic bajan fanatics were eligible, they would not need to resort to alleged larceny, extortion of appellations or use every weapon in their arsenal seeking to disable our unstoppable rise. They should see by now that religious and political slavery as an optimum, virulent form of controlled programing is not working anymore and only the weakest black minds are now afflicted and still mentally captured. Thankfully, the African Union (AU) started requesting specific genetic testing of Afrikan claimants. This move will combat and eliminate the many versions of any alleged government backed long con claims and games. The "Tafaris" of the 1980s and coming forward will not stand a chance in infiltrating anyone else's genealogical sphere in these new beginnings, unless they can present DNA evidence. They all need to STEP BACK, they are NOT BLACK. None of them can qualify. The Barbados government needs to stop the road show.

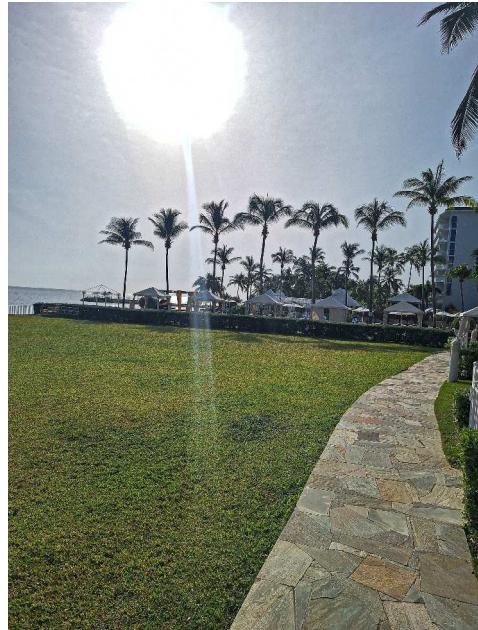

It is Sunday January 12, 2025 and what assailed our senses on this day is seeing the government allowing some type of tourism build on the largest burial ground for enslaved Afrikans in Barbados, the hatefulness never ends, they never once honored the memories of our ancestors, never built a monument to them on any grave sites, we have no clue where most of them are buried, except for Newton Burial Ground. We cannot even pay respect. I have published about this neglect and dismissive attitude in another issue of Kush Quarterly, now it seems they are doubling down on the impertinence. Therefore, we have all right to ask, why is reparations a central focus, when setting up this elaborate broadway show with Afrikans in the AU, running all over the place making videos and cannot find it in themselves to have a little decorum, instead of indecency, when it comes to the memories of our whipped, genocided, and chained progenitors.

Why are tourists still allowed to gawk and gloat at our ancestors terrifying end, due to the rapacious; who then gleefully count the profits made from that ghoulish exercise in gruesome ruthlessness. They have no empathy, or sentimentality whatever toward our shackled and still tormented ancestors. Therefore, as the inaugural heads of the human family tree, WE DECREE, the immediate termination of this sickeningly repulsive bajan ritual.

It is disturbing that anyone would willingly procure payment to assume an identity that has "caused the deaths of many over millennia" with the potential to eventually cause their own in a "most gruesome fashion," as history has recorded, a scenario not entirely impossible, but yet these possessed bajan Mutts still uncaringly forged ahead with the ruse. I listened as a child when adults spoke of the many incidences tied to and triggered by attempting to rip-off certain banners from the continent of Afrika. This particular pursuit was hatched and carried out for many decades by political handlers, who themselves knew absolutely nothing about what they were attempting to steal, or they would not dare risk another try, or started the first one, but chronic thieves and liars have no fear. When the self-named "Tafari" became deceased, and the antagonist's mantle with payment attached was allegedly passed to "Comess of AU fame," to commence an alleged dis-information campaign of outpouring nonsense, that he has become well-known for on the local TV circuit, and unashamedly spewing a tonnage of falsity into the Black community. The height of wanton narcissistic arrogance I never thought existed, became an obsession amongst the most vacuous politicians/lawyers and their deplorably corrupt minority acolytes, who all get psychotic thrills from watching Black Afrikan people suffer mentally and financially, while deceitfully saying to the people "emancipation is a journey," During that movie, billions of dollars allegedly disappears from the treasury, and they all laugh all the way to the bank. An association of termites who have no positive or original thoughts/ideas in their heads outside of violent brute force, mendacity, sedition, and should be exterminated from our Afrikan lives permanently, with extreme prejudice, before they devise even more anti-Black Afrikan ruination and spread that cancer all around.

How does one take our most precious possession and without our consent or knowledge it existed, sell/give away our private and confidential data of pedigree freely to those who covet everything we have, hate us with such intensity, plunder our future generation's opportunities, pretend they are superior to us, lie, cheat and create fraud out of thin air to keep us in confinement. When whites from other countries arrive on the island they are warned by the nuisance minority usurpers, to not speak to us or tell us anything. What kind of evil, morality lacking characters are so self-hating and fatally flawed, they see nothing wrong with what they have done in the last 100 years. What manner of monsters would allegedly set us up for generational deprivation, force young Black people into their criminally created. decades old billion-dollar second economy and world of thugs, drugs, guns and human depravity for self-gain, willfully pauperize, disenfranchise and marginalize entire Black neighborhoods, bully and terrorize people into psychiatric institutions to destroy their minds, so they never function normally again. A crime used throughout and across four generations, along with the wretched focused set up of children and their parents for societal failure. This is but a mere 25% of yet untold injustices committed against us and our children for generations, it will take years to distill and expose the other 75%. So much horror yet to reveal.

Our Afrikan ancestors saw you, or you would not now be drifting out to sea in a wellhouse of your own creation of growing filth, and the people finally seeing what you are, after using them as stepping stones to embellishment and global recognition for self. With everything collapsing around you, and every abomination committed against us now strolling out of your jam-packed skeletal closets, to introduce themselves to the world. You placed yourselves in this position due to not having sufficient knowledge of what you were so desperately coveting and never will, because it is not your right or place. Despite all the world stage fawning, lecturing, scolding and showboating, you are still working overtime to make sure we never find out our true identities, make a video about that. Newsflash!! We know, many of us found out a while back, you can now cut out the bad acting. While distracting everyone by pointing fingers at known imperialist countries, but hiding, covering for and protecting the local and foreign minority of mobsters from public scrutiny while they are plotting against our Afrikan lives. All of you are equally guilty. This is the end of that, or your regrets will multiply. The result of servants from the parliament and minority racists believing they can do whatever they want with what rightfully belongs to us and our offspring.

When did these crimes against Black humanity become normalized on a Black majority island; was it before or after politicians discovered we have no human rights under any protective umbrella, as designed, made sure to keep the life destroying information to themselves, only sharing with minorities, just as they did our private ancestral affairs but never once told us anything, and made another informed decision to take full advantage. But had no intentions to start the process to demand our humanity restored, or insist we REINSTATE it ourselves, as paid. They never wasted one vile opportunity to force us into compliance, once they found fellow fiends from the subterranean deep to join them while working against us, and ecstatically shared their fond ideology for revulsion and debased terror. There will be no shortcuts for this sinister blood-bonded syndicate of bajan grifters. They will have to commence penance between their heinous endeavors starting with the Marcus Garvey "sabotage" in the 1920s, and the follow-up generational targeting and controlled destruction of Black Afrikan creatives on the island. This process is long haul, embraces 124 years, as the crimes against us will not go unpunished. Since they are all perpetually caged within the decomposing system and twilight zone of things, as they are to each other and now in the fight of their increasingly reprobate, expendable condition to keep corruption alive by every means. They will not get away this time. We must therefore query, is this the only qualification and criteria needed to weasel one's way into the UN Secretary General's chair to create world-wide upheaval. After the alleged socio-economic plundering of Barbados, and introduction of rising atrocities by the same frenzied miscreants and their joined-at-the-hip abettors. Who have all become so deranged and tainted, they need to take their scrounging retrograde, subspecies demeanor elsewhere.

I was going to start this paragraph with the word implore, but since they are not doing any of this for me, I thought a final warning may be closer to the point, but now I DEMAND that all Caricom governments presently and in the long-term future of millennia's forward moving components, including and especially Barbados' CEASE and DESIST FROM ANY FURTHER INTERFERENCE IN ANYTHING PERTAINING TO THIS LINEAGE. They can also take under advisement to stay well away from other Afrikan bloodlines they may or not have heard about, but whose origins certainly has the potential to also tempt their inner jealous criminal who may opt to act on it, or they can cast the omen aside, but if they do not listen, they will find out.

I have the Divine privilege and permission to insist. Since I carry several of the most important bloodlines shared across the Afrikan continent. Unfortunately for those whom I am 100% sure do not know this was possible, you and your whitish sub-group counterparts, and those yard fowl strays and supporters/hangers-on you own, who comfortably reside at the very bottom of everyone's shoes, now have no more direct say in our lives unless explicitly invited. Which will never happen again in any of life's advancing processions, all of this ENDS HERE. None of it is surprising since they never knew the most powerful Pan Afrikanists were born and do not have to fake it in any staged spectacle, because we have no need to read from a prepared script of falsification. They did not know that titles are mostly tied to Royal blood, just as the sacred land is, and infused possibly hundreds of thousands of years ago, or more, from the major prestigious and pre-historical centers of our AFRAKAN stories ever told on our earth. Fakery and impersonations have no place in these new beginnings.

They are now all confronted by indigenous events that are way above their political intellect to grasp, as mental midgets, who erroneously believe that slick talking is all that is needed, and part of our lines of Divine engagement. Wrong again. So, what exactly did this cadre of mixed ragtag bajan bunglers know before embarking on a journey to self-destruct, armed only with judicial and legislative powers of obsessive hate for Afrikans. While wrongly believing we are the ones who will succumb when they are done with their most vindictive rackets and infernal attacks against our worlds of reality. This is not the space to test the many sacred powers of our true and living Black Afrikan Gods and Goddesses who walk on our earth. This is non-negotiable and there is no useful purpose served freely walking into another one of your own well-set traps meant for us, this time with our assistance if you persist. Since we are no longer your unknowing human sacrifices. We are also well aware your little colonial world remains entombed in several different time warps of the past, and unable to escape without a radical evolution. Do not test us, fear will not work. The Afrikan continent is our Holy Land, and it is way past time appointed lineage thus blessed to take charge of our most Sacred Dominions through one of our worlds of higher energy, make the needed arrangements. Finally putting an end to the earth's inhuman(e), barbaric detritus who float around unanchored and surround us, believing they have some given right to foul up our realm with their mob of small-time thieves' plans and presence. When they have long ago not only sold their BA (souls) but also turned their backs on our Black Afrikan ancestors, willingly and willfully defiled our genesis, and will pay the ultimate price for the egregious encroachment. While trying their utmost best to graduate to much larger embezzlements against our living issue and successors. NO, YOU ARE ALL DONE, find another living organism to infest and feast on. MODERN DAY SLAVERY??

The last time Barbados had a 2-year rotation into the Caricom chair, videos later emerged across the island region, Americas and Europe, with images of young people from the atolls, who said they were allegedly lured with lies and imprecise promises, by some bajan recruiter domiciled in the UK. The young people, also from different minority ethnicities, complained bitterly they were forced into "slavery-like conditions" offered as job prospects in parts of Europe. It was a scandal back then three to four years ago, and still is, so I suggest caution in dreaming up the easiest path to money-making for self, rather than the safety of and benefits for those who were willing to face down white racism in its rawest form to ascend and escape the turmoil filled, lack of viable alternatives, amateurish, small-time ego-tripping establishment of high-level beggary on the failed island. The island's dangerously criminal minded colonial politicians should face a permanent ban from the Afrikan continent, as it relates to us, our destiny, reparations or anything ancestral in content. As we have now become the prisoners of politician's war to protect, sustain, maintain and defend the corrupt structures that keeps us imprisoned, and they and their partners wealthy. While the island devolves to nothing.

MODERN DAY SLAVERY??

During a January 5, 2025, meeting on constitutional reform amid the offensive stench around accusations of the government allegedly "being illegitimate," a contentious matter still before the Supreme Court. At that meetup information was reported by a concerned member of the audience, living in the UK, that evidence revealed "in 1661 the political foreign governors of the day legislated into law that Black Afrikan people on the island are not fully human." The same rancid, tired, decayed wording found in the United States constitution, and we can bet, in every other configuration in this calculated, and calcified illusion of a now split away and swiftly disintegrating physical world. The simmering political swamp that is deceitful Shambados, seemingly proudly carries the legislation on statute books, right alongside Slave Laws and Slave Codes, and treat Black Afrikan people accordingly. They all refused to answer us when we complained for years that parts to the now suspended constitution were missing, the document was not uniform or comprehensive. Now we know those paragraphs were premeditatedly and illegally removed, and unavailable to the Black taxpaying public for over half-century, who mostly know nothing about what is really happening around them, but felonious, unelected minorities are told everything, none of which is any of their business.

Jamaica Independence Day Celebrations

They have absolutely no permission to speak for or represent me or any of my family in any millennia. Since I am not nostalgic for a repeat of the many attempts at my demise, keeping them around us has become too detrimental to all Afrikans globally and they show themselves over and over, as our unwavering, and sworn deadly, money-hungry enemies. While displaying all kinds of nerve to also crave reparations from our ancestor's tangible presence, even though the "Tafari" cockup, is now their relentless haunting, and the underhanded overtess used, so not a dime for any of them. Since crimes against us are becoming even more defined as though we were not supposed to live through, or survive any of these demonic shaped experiences, or uncover and talk about their execution of degeneracy, while they set up Afrika. The entire reason for their cybercrime bill to silence us permanently. So that no one finds out what they have done and are still wickedly doing to the people on the island. Not one politician from the 1970s and coming forward had the guts to tell us what was happening, or why or ever tried to stop "Tafari" or any of the others from arriving at this trajectory. The cabinet members of the 80s and 90s, known for attempts to do the right thing by the majority population were all exiled. They all knew about this failed scheme, none warned the people, because everyone saw only success, They colluded against us for what was thought of as a free retirement package, at our expense. We can no longer allow, afford or accept this elevated imperilment to our existence and existential national and global threat to our future in the far distance. I expect to not hear about any further negative movement against us on either of the above topics. Because, we will then have to organize a stronger legal line of defense. I do have much better and more productively important engagements than get sucked into the deepest rabbit holes politicians continue to dig for themselves and others. Where people like me only just found out in the last two years the dangers that really exist, from where there are no exits for them within the quicksand they constructed for themselves, when it all caves in eventually. However, we must ask, what would inspire the black faces in the colonial brigade, whom we know many do not identify as black, once they are modeling a colonial title, and mysteriously call themselves elite, since all we see are paid employees, incompetent and inefficient, who also have the gall to voice that rubbish, boastful without any proof, and claiming a pedigree without evidence. Still, their ancestors suffered the same fate as ours, unless they were white back then, maybe in thought. Nevertheless, what kind of predilection as a crippling internal affliction would drive those who look like us, to keep our Black Afrikan uniqueness, and ancestral story concealed away from us, to monetize it for themselves, to take sides with the South Africa styled reprehensible, lazy local and foreign, apartheid practicing racists who showcase as our hateful foes; to seemingly sell our identity to prop up the cesspit of corruption they all wallowed in for the last century, and trying their level best to make sure we never find out who we really are, on the land our ancestors built. We already know they are shameless and remorseless, but this is the last straw. No politician from Barbados or anywhere else will be using the information they kept hidden from us, in their crumbling towers of fabrication, duplicity, and outright lies to allegedly scam Afrika.

Again, politicians and their minority playmates are instructed, do not pick a fight with us and expect to win. We will pulverize and shatter to pieces all your machinations to harm us with a well-aimed literary sledgehammer. Do not go anywhere near our Afrikan legacy again, or we will use every legal method at our disposal to publicly hunt you down and bring you and your minority planners to justice for yet another violation against our corporeality. No one of our caliber will give you or your fellow bottom feeding, whitish barnacles any authorization to get close to us or our families on either continent, ever. Everyone knows you cannot be trusted at any time, and Afrika should take heed. So, stay away with your diabolical malignancy, leave us alone and be gone. Since we do not have to put up with paid servants, therefore, your cursed subversion of our neolithic ancestry is no longer tolerated. In reviewing the last 50 years, we must throw up thanks and praise to the Black Afrikan Trinidadians and Jamaicans. Pure blood-born Pan Afrikanists, most are no longer with us and are now our esteemed ancestors. Who started the difficult process to free our minds in the early 1970s. And in closing, equal highest plaudits must be handed to an ancient group, amongst the earth's original, natural born, scholarly geniuses, the Afrikan Lemba, cousin to the Bantu, for recently leading the way, the correct path to full mental liberation, I was listening. Anuk Dua, Anuk Shepsy, The eleven-plus slave test of Barbados and the other islands who still use it, is the anti-thesis of ancient blood-born scholars and deletes ancestral intelligence, a recipe for more wasted decades.
